Revised 2017

SEAMEN'S
WIDOW AND ORPHAN
ASSOCIATION

ACT OF INCORPORATION.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

In the Year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty-Four.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE SEAMEN'S WIDOW AND ORPHAN
ASSOCIATION

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

SECTION 1. Francis P. B. True, Catharine T. Andrew, Deborah Archer, their Associates and Successors, are hereby made a corporation by the name of the Seamen's Widow and Orphan Association, for the purpose of affording relief to the widows and orphans of seamen and their worthy descendants * with all the powers and privileges, and subject to all the duties and liabilities set forth in the forty-fourth chapter of the Revised Statutes.  Now, on the strength of this Court Order, and to the extent that income remains after satisfaction of the Association's primary purpose, gifts may be made for the "further purpose of affording relief to any and all needy widows, orphans, children, individuals, and families in the area of Salem, Massachusetts, such relief to be afforded directly to said recipients or indirectly by way of gifts to recognize benevolent organizations that serve, at least in part, the community of Salem, Massachusetts... ." In a successful attempt at assisting the board of managers in identifying an appropriate class of beneficiaries, the Court found that the term seamen includes "men and women whose primary occupation requires that they spend more than half of their working time on board a ship or boat in navigable waters".

SECTION 2. The said Corporation may take and hold real and personal estate to an amount not exceeding ten thousand dollars for the purpose aforesaid.
(Approved by the Governor, March 13, 1844.)

 As amended by Act of Legislature May 26, 1951
 As amended by Act of Legislature June 8, 1994*

GENERAL LAWS, CHAPTER 180.

"SECTION 9. Corporate Powers. Any corporation heretofore or hereafter organized under general or special laws for any of the purpose mentioned in this chapter may hold real and personal estate to an amount not exceeding five million dollars, which estate or its income shall be devoted to the purposes set forth in its charter or agreement of association or in any amendment thereof, and it may receive and hold, in trust or otherwise, funds received by gift or bequest to be devoted by it to such purposes. FORMATION.

At a meeting of the Ladies of Salem, held at Hamilton Hall on the first day of May, 1833, for the purpose of forming a society to be called the SEAMEN'S WIDOW AND ORPHAN ASSOCIATION, the following preamble and constitution were adopted:

PREAMBLE.

Among the afflicted of our fellow creatures, none have a greater claim on our sympathies than the destitute Widows and Orphans of Seamen and their worthy descendants. To be the blessed instrument of Divine Providence in making good the promises of God to this afflicted class is a privilege equally desirable and honorable to the benevolent heart. And with the promise of God to encourage us, we, the subscribers, agree to associate for the purpose of devising and adopting such measures as may seem best calculated to ameliorate the condition of the fatherless and widow and their worthy descendants.
